

Amendments to the articles of association of the Southern Province Cement Company

Article	The current text of the article	The text of the article as amended
Article 3: the Company's purpose	Article 3: the Company's purpose Manufacturing and producing derivatives and accessories of cement, and trade in those Products, as well as all work directly or indirectly related to this purpose.	manufacturing all types of cement, retail and wholesale sale of building materials, wholesale sale of cement, gypsum and the like, sale and export of raw materials and mining materials such as gypsum, sand and clay, export of all types of cement and clinker, operating quarries for all raw materials, operating sand and gravel mines including crushers, exploiting quarries of raw materials, mining and transportation of raw and manufactured materials necessary in the cement industry, processing industrial, agricultural and municipal waste and residues and producing alternative fuel, land transportation of goods, maintenance and operation of residential and commercial buildings and industrial facilities, carrying out all work related directly or indirectly to the previous purposes