B Dynamic Risk Assessment

Our KPMG Clara risk assessment equip our audit experts with a universe of relevant data points based on your business. This is executed by looking from the outside in: mapping industry expertise, trending topics, regulations, and standards. Then after from the inside out: using technology and analytics to drill down into the areas such as your general ledger. This means we focus only on what really matters.

Our dynamic Risk Assessment Methodology is embedded within the KPMG Clara workflow to ensure consistency in applying the risks identified to your tailored audit approach and strategy.

Applying the sciences of expert elicitation, network theory and behavioural finance, DRA generates a network that, akin to a regression analysis that best represents the data, and the debiased views of the best thinkers on the topic under investigation. This generates part of the 'magic': groups of experts can, between them, foresee risks and opportunities that individuals, including subject matter experts, cannot.

The network can be analysed, mathematically, to determine its longer-term risk profile, the opportunities embedded therein, and the near-term scenarios most expected to be encountered – including their aggregate severities, likelihoods and velocities (aggregate time to impact). Lastly, the individual constituents of the network are stratified into those assigned to top management in view of their systemic significance, those that can be allocated to senior management and the comparative unconnected, low velocity, severity and likelihood that can be delegated to middle management.

Identifies the scenarios

Identifies for the audit team the scenarios most expected to be encountered by the client in the near term, to be used in stress testing.

Longer-term risk

Identifies the longer-term risk profile of the client as well as the most powerful mitigants to avoid / change that outcome, empowering the auditor with scientific evidence to make refinements to the discount rates used in impairment and viability assessments

Interconnectivity

Recognizes and reveals the interconnectivity of risks and the future dynamics these are likely to generate

Identifies risks

Identifies the combinations of lower ranked risks that, in aggregate, may exceed the likelihood and severity of the most significant individual risk

C Client Collaboration

You will receive access to the Salama Cooperative Insurance Company Collaboration Site. KPMG Clara for Clients is your window into the audit. We do not use technology for the sake of it. We use it where it enhances audit quality or efficiency, such as avoiding duplication of effort by testing once centrally and sharing results among our audit teams. Here is a small sample of the solutions we will deploy across the various phases of your audit, including those we have built specifically for our Insurance clients.

KPMG Clara Analytics currently has more than 400 apps that we can use on audits. Some of these that we will initially deploy on the Salama for Cooperative Insurance Company audit include:

- Journal Entry Analysis: Our general ledger analysis helps create powerful visualisations of your data across 100% of your journal entry population. It allows us to deep drill down into each transaction, enhance our risk assessment and improve our approach to identifying anomalies for specific item testing. We apply this across risk assessment, planning analytics, business process understanding, substantive testing, high risk criteria testing, Audit Committee and management communications.
- Visual Ledger: KPMG Clara D&A uses advanced visualisations to summarise and present results in a user-friendly way that enhances the auditor's ability to identify and analyse significant or unusual transactions, events and conditions. We leverage the advanced visual ledger to summarise the number and value of all journal entries processed through accounts to:

- Validate and enhance our understanding of transaction flows and how transactions are recorded.
- Identify journal entries that are unexpected based on the applicable financial reporting framework to inform our risk assessment.
- Focus testing on journal entries that are unexpected/outliers, which are more susceptible to misstatement.
- Identify opportunities for process improvements and potential control deficiencies.
- Sub-Ledger D&A: Leverages 100% of data and models this Data on powerful analytics software to enable analysing complex data elements. We gain deeper insights into the data and enables a data driven risk assessment and testing. This further enhances audit quality through better use of available time and driving consistency across the engagement portfolio.

Data management

The security of your data is of the utmost importance. For data transfer at the start of the audit and for the performance of analyses, we apply the most rigorous requirements in terms of security and data protection.

The transfer is conducted through our proven KPMG extraction tool which ensures your ERP system is not impaired by the ongoing work of our teams. The method we use to extract data depends on the degree of maturity of your IT systems – you can reach out to our team for more information.

You get a higher audit quality and reliability, since we audit almost all of your transactions. We focus on the essential while paying attention to any outliers and exceptions.

The chart on the right shows the "KPMG Clara Maturity" model. It illustrates how we can jointly transform a traditional audit into an advanced, technology-based audit. We will tailor the audit to your needs.

How we bring technology into your audit

Technology can be used for cyber security, Global compliance framework, Research and development efficiency, implementation of new accounting standards, Data governance, Cloud transitioning and etc.

With increased automation, the audit quality improves

● = number of audited transactions

● = outliers identified

1 We leverage our technology and modern audit approach to identify risks (both financial and non-financial).

2 Through automating the audit of routine transactions, we can analyze 100% of the data passing through your IT system. We focus on outliers and exceptions. Doing so will ensure adequate focus and time on the non-routine transactions as well.

3 Non-routine transactions: In areas with high degree of professional judgment, we employ algorithms and machine learning to assist in our audit.

4 Digital audit: Owing to our automated audit procedures, we can increase our audit frequency and thus promptly uncover critical issues.

How we generate insights from your data

KPMG Clara helps us analyze your data all the way down to the transaction level. From this, we generate valuable findings for our audit as well as interesting insights for you. Data analytics is of growing importance not only for multinational corporations, but is also highly appreciated by family-owned businesses.

Our audit approach

KPMG Clara's capability ranges from simple general ledger analyses to the sifting through of complex transaction chains (e.g. in the purchase and sales process). In this way, we automatically audit a large part of the transactions. We can then focus our manual audit procedures on transactions with increased risk. We provide our analyses centrally for your/all companies in the main system, working together with your IT department.

Increased audit quality

We audit financially relevant transactions for accuracy. With KPMG Clara, we audit 100% of your routine transactions so we can focus on the relevant risks.

Reduced preparation effort

Any data we need, we can simply download ourselves from your central data center. As a result, your preparation workload is significantly reduced.

Unlocking new insights

By analyzing outliers and deviations based on their materiality and relevance, we get to the root of the problem. This knowledge will then help you tackle and remedy potential systematic problems and process weaknesses.

New perspectives

In the course of our audit, we analyze your data and identify facts that are both relevant to the audit and of interest to you. We then present these to you. This gives you a new perspective on your processes.

Total revenue

Paid

Match the order and goods issue

Remaining population

Data analysis in the verification of sales

With KPMG Clara we can analyze all sales entries and classify them into three categories:

- 1) Paid invoices
- 2) Invoices that match the order and goods issue
- 3) Remaining population

We automatically audit categories 1 and 2 using KPMG Clara. This enables us to devote our attention to the remaining population in order to get to the bottom of high-risk outliers. With KPMG Clara, we can audit 100% of your sales transactions. This will provide you with a higher level of audit assurance while at the same time improving audit quality.

IT in the audit

An essential part of the assessment of the internal control system is also the audit of the IT systems - however, not as an end in itself, but to increase the audit quality as well as the efficiency of the audit. And thus also to relieve the burden on your organization.

Integrated focus team IT

Our integrated IT focus team, headed by Insert IT Audit partner name, represents the harmony of IT auditing with financial statement auditing as part of our holistic audit approach. As part of the approach for Salama Cooperative Insurance Company, it is ensured that wherever possible, audits are performed centrally only once and the results are made available to all audit teams through appropriate shared convenience memos. In addition to the actual audit of the basic IT systems, further detailed IT audits form an integral part of all other audit areas. Our integrated approach therefore provides for the IT auditors to be part of the core team and to be involved in all audit areas.

Cyber Security

As a critical digital company, Salama Cooperative Insurance Company is fundamentally exposed to cyber security risks. We will take these into account as part of the audit in accordance with professional requirements.

With regard to IT, we follow three basic rules :

Integrated - Relevant - Value-focused.

Integrated: By taking an integrated audit approach to your IT systems, data flows, and automatic and semi-automatic controls in your operational business processes, we create a large part of the required audit assurance for key components of your financial statements at a very early stage in the audit.

The result of the integrated IT audit is that we bring forward audit procedures and reduce the time required for the audit. In addition, we ensure that there will be no surprises at the end of the year. If you use bots that are relevant for our audit, we will assess them using our tried-and-tested procedure.

Relevant: The main audit area for the audit of Salama Cooperative Insurance Company's IT systems is the "General IT Controls". Here, too, KPMG's audit approach is risk-oriented and complexity-reducing. We define our audit steps in a process-oriented and control-based manner. In this context, we will conduct the audits for the hosting of the Information System Name relevant for Salama Cooperative Insurance Company directly at the company's operational services, the operator of the data center.

For entities using the Software as a Service (SAAS) applications, we will utilize the ISAE 3402 reports provided.

As part of the IT audit, we will use our KPMG bots, which perform fully automated audits of general IT controls.

We create added value: Our IT audit approach delivers added value for Salama Cooperative Insurance Company. Thus, we will also provide you with intensive audit support in the context of your planned medium- to long-term conversion to Information System, which will have a significant impact on the harmonization, standardization, and consolidation of your accounting-relevant business processes, and we will make available our extensive experience from similar projects at other globally operating groups for your benefit. We will support you on your successful way into the future. With our experienced KPMG Information System, we are available to you as a sparring partner throughout the project and ensure that audit-related IT risks can be identified and addressed at an early stage.

Audit Bots

Like Salama Cooperative Insurance Company we at KPMG encourage automation where it makes sense, and believe that standardization and automation are key pillars to a robust and efficient audit. That is why we have developed an automation platform as part of the KPMG Clara suite with over 300 automation assets and counting.

We will extract data centrally and use bots to test Salama Cooperative Insurance Company's IT controls in order to save time for the business and your IT team.

Our audit approach of the accounting-relevant IT systems at Salama Cooperative Insurance Company adapts flexibly to the maturity level and progress in the harmonization of your IT systems to Information System. In doing so, we coordinate closely with Salama Cooperative Insurance Company's internal IT auditors. For the implementation of Information System starting in 2024 as well as the introduction of the new consolidation and reporting system, we recommend project-accompanying audits.

Lead Audit Partner

Insisting on the highest standards of independence and ethical transparency

Auditor independence and strong ethical conduct are cornerstones of international professional standards and regulatory requirements. KPMG International’s detailed independence policies and procedures, which incorporate the IESBA Code of Ethics requirements, are set out in the Global Quality & Risk Management Manual, which applies to all KPMG firms.

Confidentiality of client information

Confidentiality is fundamental to our firm’s ambition to become the most trusted and trustworthy professional services firm. We have a strong, demonstrated track record of successfully working with our competitors and affiliates of our clients while maintaining confidentiality. To do this we have strict policies and procedures in place, which go beyond the requirements of our regulatory bodies.

To illustrate:

- Our code of conduct (supported by ethics and independence training) contains our policies in this area, incorporates the rules of the regulatory bodies which govern us, and provides specific guidance on integrity, confidentiality, independence, and objectivity
- Our people must maintain confidentiality of all client and former client information, as well as information on non- clients that we know is confidential
- We tightly control access to work papers, and only make them available to people outside KPMG in limited circumstances (and with permission from the client and engagement partner)
- Our professionals must affirm their understanding of the rules governing confidential client information in writing once a year.
- All staff have to complete mandatory trainings in respect of data privacy and confidentiality on an annual basis.

Ethics and Independence

Each KPMG firm has a designated Ethics & Independence Partner (EIP) who has primary responsibility for the direction and execution of E&I policies and procedures locally. The EIP is responsible for communicating and implementing KPMG global policies and procedures and ensuring that local policies and procedures are established and effectively implemented when they are more stringent than the global requirements.

KPMG partners and employees are required to consult with their member firm’s EIP on certain specific independence matters as defined in the GQ&RM Manual. The EIP may also be required to consult with the Global Independence Group depending upon the facts and circumstances. Guidance and tools are available to facilitate documenting these consultations.

Compliance with independence policies and processes is monitored through annual independence confirmations and compliance audits within member firms, as well as through the network’s wider monitoring programs.

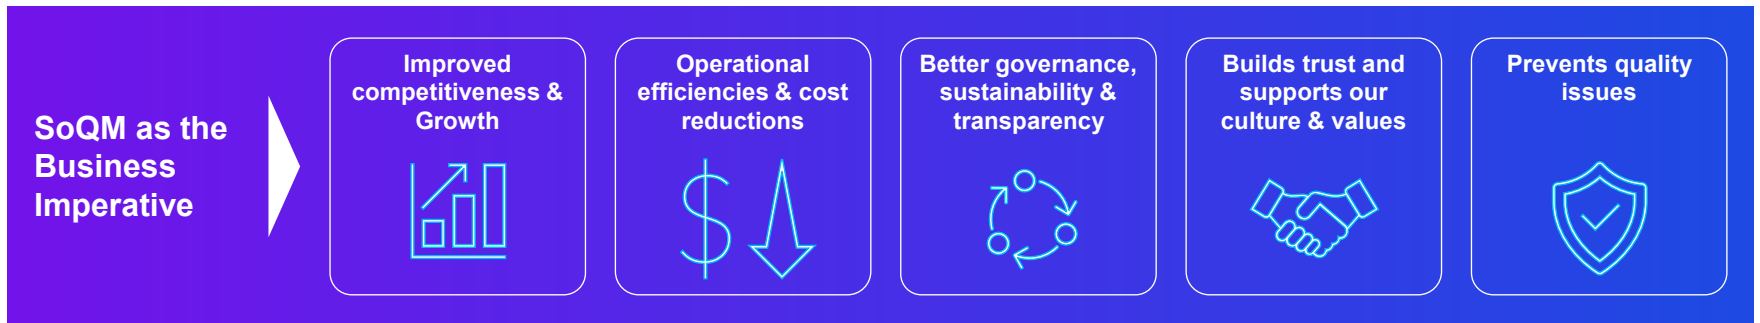

All KPMG partners and employees are required to report an independence breach to their member firm EIP as soon as they become aware of it. Any breaches of auditor independence regulations are required to be reported to those charged with governance at our audit client on the basis agreed with them but at a minimum on an annual basis. Significant breaches of independence rules must be reported to those charged with governance as soon as possible.

Our approach to driving consistency in our System of Quality Management (SoQM)

A robust and consistent system of quality control is essential to delivering quality services. Accordingly, KPMG International has quality control policies that apply to all KPMG firms.

- KPMG Saudi Arabia is implementing a globally consistent System of Quality Management that aligns with the International Standard of Quality Management (ISQM1) which was approved by the IAASB in September 2020 and is effective from December 15, 2022.
- ISQM1 requires firms to design, implement and operate a system of quality management to consistently deliver quality audits, assurance, and related services engagements, and to evaluate the effectiveness of the system on an annual basis.
- KPMG Saudi Arabia continues to provide considerable attention on its SoQM workstream and it includes implementing controls that evolve our existing policies and procedures into a proactive approach for managing audit quality, to better respond to quality risk in various components within the firm

SoQM Components which includes consistent set of quality objectives, risks and controls

- The focus is on your business model's challenges and associated risks. Our collaboration starts with a risk assessment conducted jointly with you. We have already carried out an initial risk assessment for the purposes of drawing up our proposal.
- The risk assessment forms the base of our audit approach and is based on our understanding of your business activities, as well as our experience of the industry and the market environment in question. This enables an efficient audit focused on your organization's requirements.
- Once we have identified the audit area focus and the risks, we will define the audit procedures that are relevant to your accounting and your financial statements.

Insights into IFRS 17

We seek to provide our audit clients with guidance in relation to IFRS 17 Challenges. Our insights and guidance in relation to IFRS 17 would benefit Salama in a way that we can provide our feedback on significant assumption and judgment taken while adopting the standards. The insight may be related to the following below:

Grouping of contracts and recognition of losses under Onerous Contracts:

The level of aggregation and therefore the appropriate level for offsetting gains and losses may become more granular under the new standard. This may result in creating separate groups for loss making contracts and hence immediate recognition of losses (offsetting losses against profits may not be allowed).

Choice of measurement model (PAA vs GMM)

Multi year contracts may not be eligible for the PAA based solely on duration, assessment needs to be made that the liability measurement under PAA is similar to measurement under BBA.

Treatment of Acquisition cash flows

Acquisition costs are deferred (by reducing the liability recognized on initial recognition) and are recognized as an expense over time in a systematic way. Policy choice available for contracts with a coverage period of less than 12 months.

Enhanced disclosures

Detailed disclosures pertaining to new insurance contracts issued, growth of entity's insurance business, level of aggregation applied and expectation with respect to CSM recognition in future periods.

Reinsurance

Under IFRS 17, reinsurance contracts will be treated as separate contracts with separate measurement model. Depending on the model used, one has to determine CSM, RA for the reinsurance assets.

RSM INTERNATIONAL'S COMMITMENT TO QUALITY

Quality is the absolute cornerstone for RSM International and as such every member firm is required to meet a number of obligations in relation to quality. To ensure consistent practices and standards among member firms, RSM International has developed a number of global methodologies, policies and practices which are compliant with International Standards (where applicable). These have been developed by specialists and leaders at member firms and the Global Executive Office, under the oversight of the RSM Transnational Assurance Services Executive Committee.

Every member firm is required to conduct an internal inspection over the quality of services delivered and compliance with network policies and procedures as well as their own incremental policies and procedures each year. RSM International organises global observations of these inspections on a cyclical basis, not to exceed every three years. If a firm's annual inspection or the cyclical global observations highlight significant non-compliance, a follow-up review is scheduled to check progress on issues raised. Significant non-compliance can result in a number of sanctions being imposed on the firm, including up to termination of the firm's membership in RSM International.

COMMITMENT TO QUALITY

RSM Allied Accountants primary objective is the maintenance and enhancement of quality which leads to a sustainable and profitable business.

COMMITMENT

Our commitment is underpinned by our emphasis on professional and decisive leadership, IT capability and investment, effective training and personal development, the operations of the Quality Assurance Department (QAD) and being responsive to the findings of the firm's regulators. We are continually striving to improve our internal monitoring procedures and our response to external monitoring.

The firm aims to attain the highest standard of professional conduct through the cumulative effect of the following:

- Internal quality control procedures (at the point of delivery
- Internal quality assurance by reviews of engagements and of principals' and staff's competence;
- Continuous training, informing and assessment of all principals and staff;
- Feedback from staff and RIs; and
- The external quality monitoring by the firm's regulators.

QUALITY AND CULTURE

It is vital that the firm is constantly assessing its messaging and the behavior of staff to ensure that quality culture permeates throughout the firm. The Management looks for signs that any aspects of culture need redressing and the Ethics team promotes and monitors adherence to independence and integrity.

All partners and staff are provided with access to the employee guide which sets out the firm's code of conduct the employee guide contains information covering all aspects of day to day working life and is available on the intranet as a reference tool, ensuring that both partners and staff always act in a professional manner.

QUALITY AND OUR METHODOLOGY

RSM policies and procedures are designed to ensure that our engagements comply with relevant regulatory requirements, professional standards and RSM Methodology.

SOFTWARE

The methodology is supported by the firm's own computerized software which enables the planned project work to be tailored. Whilst its functionality, along with the inbuilt controls and structured work flows, promotes discipline and compliance with International Standards, it allows RSM teams to focus on the exercise of judgement and evidence their scepticism and challenge of management leading to well-documented, effective and robust quality.

PLANNING

Our methodology requires a detailed understanding of the business, the industry in which it operates and the systems and controls which it has in place. Our regular contact with management throughout the project ensures that we are aware of key developments and provides an opportunity for management to be informed of and act upon relevant technical and regulatory changes. These exchanges inform the development of the strategy for the project and the production of a plan that is based on a detailed risk assessment enabling focused testing to be performed and an effective and efficient plan to be carried out. The plan is revisited and revised, where necessary, during the course of the project as the team reacts to their findings.

Principles have access to the staff resource planning tool, Retain. This enables them to view the availability of all staff, and their particular specialisms, and ensure that the selected engagement team have the appropriate skills and expertise for a particular engagement.

FIELDWORK

We use a range of techniques in carrying out our engagement. Our computerized tools which provides guidance on how to use data software to perform specific tasks. Training and the sharing of good practice in this area is a continual process which is supported by champions at manager and user level.

The exercise of professional skepticism is an essential feature in a quality and our culture encourages teams to consult and to challenge their own, their colleagues' and the client's assumptions and conclusions during the performance of the engagement, and to document the resolution of matters arising. A broad spectrum of experts in auditing, accounting, IT, taxation, valuations and financial instruments are on hand to consult, assist or use where necessary.

REVIEW

Each team member is responsible for considering the quality of his or her work before signing it off. In addition, with the exception of the principal, the work of every team member is reviewed and signed off by another, more senior, person.

Additional reviews by colleagues who are independent of the team are required in certain circumstances, for example where there is a public interest, where the client is deemed to represent potentially high reputational risk to the firm, where a long-standing relationship exists, or where the principal is being mentored.

Independent reviews are also conducted when an enhanced report is to be issued. Such reviews are always conducted by appropriately qualified and experienced personnel and our computerized software ensures that all these quality controls are applied and evidenced.

QUALITY AND SPECIALIST AUDITS

RSM maintains responsible individual (RI) and manager authorization system such that only those individuals with the requisite skills, experience and training can undertake specialist projects, including entities with public interest are responsible for conducting reviews of the authorisation list on a bi-monthly basis to ensure that the system is up to date.

Prior to being involved in specialist assignments, our staff must have completed appropriate specialist training. To ensure that this policy is adhered to, RIs are required to confirm, at the initial planning stage of each engagement, that they are satisfied that the allocated staff have the appropriate skills and expertise.

QUALITY AND MENTORING

There are mentoring arrangements for all new RIs, for RIs engaging in new specialist areas, for RIs that are about to relinquish their authorisation and for RIs where the Head of department considers that mentoring is necessary for quality or other reasons. Mentors are selected from an approved pool of appropriately experienced principals who submit regular reports to the partners.

QUALITY AND TRAINING

Training is key to ensuring that we are delivering quality work and maintaining a quality culture:

- ❑ all qualified personnel attend a core programme of training;
- ❑ partners and staff are provided with training according to their specific roles and specialisms;
- ❑ partners and staff attend soft skills courses to ensure that technical knowledge is applied effectively;
- ❑ an RI induction course is mandatory for all new RIs;

QUALITY ASSURANCE DEPARTMENT

Quality is the responsibility of all partners and staff. Internal quality assurance review systems must be adequate, appropriate, and make a contribution to quality. The function is delivered by the Quality Assurance Department (QAD). QAD is a separate, independent department and is responsible for checking compliance with the firm's procedures and giving feedback to promote continuing improvement in the quality of work.

The QAD team states on the firm's intranet that it aims to be:

- ❑ comprehensive in its coverage and scope of reviews;
- ❑ consistent in application of review procedures;
- ❑ critical in identification of areas for improvement;
- ❑ constructive in communication of review findings; and
- ❑ cooperative in arranging and performing reviews.

The monitoring procedures applied by QAD are in accordance with the International Standard on Quality Control. The QAD team carries out reviews of files, either in physical visits to offices or remotely, and also reviews 'whole firm' matters such as the manuals, training programme, CPD records, appraisals and ethical compliance, and internal controls, such as internal authorisation, aud-IT access and financial management.

QAD has a programme of taking high performing staff on secondment, to give them experience of QA work and a deeper understanding of quality, which they then disseminate in their office after the secondment.

A small number of QA file reviews are carried out by independent RIs from the practice or Learning & Development, to assist in their understanding of the QA process and to give insight into typical findings. These reviews are performed under close supervision by a permanent member of the QAD team.

PROCESS

The use of IT by QAD is extensive and the consistency of review procedures is ensured by the deployment of dedicated QAD team members, the use of review work programmes peer review by QAD colleagues and the pre-issue review by the Head of QAD of all reports.

Reviews findings are issued in writing to the principal and manager and then discussed in a meeting with them. This dialogue includes recognition of instances of good quality work as well as the identification of areas for improvement.

After the meeting, the principal and manager are asked to provide written responses and this should include examination of the underlying root causes for any non-compliances.

Where QAD considers that an inappropriate report may have been given, it refers the case to the Technical Committee, who decide whether the report is inappropriate and, if so, what action should be taken.

At the conclusion of the review(s) for each RI and manager, QAD uses a risk-based approach to determine the interval before their next QA review. If it is decided that an interval of six months is needed, to galvanise improvement, the individual is duly notified.

MONITORING AND REPORTING

Our internal policy is that we do not grade our QA file reviews. Our view is that this can be counterproductive and that instead it is qualitative feedback that is more constructive and helps teams to achieve improvement. Grading systems can be biased or anomalous and can lead to excessive focus on the grade, rather than the more important messages about striving for improvement.

The Head of QAD provides an annual summary written report to the partners, setting out any current concerns and obtaining prompt responses and actions as necessary.

QAD provides feedback to Partners about each principal and manager reviewed and this information is then used within the appraisal process as necessary.

The quarterly RI regional meetings are attended by one of the QAD team members and each meeting includes a section devoted to quality.

ETHICS AND INDEPENDENCE

THE FIRM DEVOTES A HIGH DEGREE OF RESOURCE TO ETHICS

Ethics materials and personal advice are readily available to staff at all levels, covering the external ethical obligations to which the firm is subject as well as its own ethical policies and access to advice from the Ethics Partner or a member of the Ethics Team on request and at any time of day.

Staff receive regular short messages on ethics via front page intranet news alerts eg around gifts and hospitality. This is supplemented by an ad hoc newsletter, which goes to all staff directly from the Ethics Partner.

ETHICS PARTNER, ETHICS TEAM AND PANEL

The Ethics Partner keeps members of the Panel informed on operational and policy related issues and briefs its members on his expectations across all of the service lines. The Terms of Reference of the Panel acknowledge the Ethics Partner's entitlement to determine any matter related to the taking on, continuation of, and disengagement from an audit engagement for ethical reasons, an entitlement emphasised by the Ethics Partner's own Terms of Reference. The Ethics Partner prepares and distributes the agenda for Panel meetings.

The firm's ethical policies lies with the Ethics Partner, assisted by the Ethics Team. It is the Ethics Partner's function to act as the ultimate arbiter of the application of the ethical codes to any given set of circumstances and all partners and audit staff are apprised of the need to consult the Ethics Team on any issue, particularly of interpretation, that they are unclear about.

In addition to the above, there are internal reviews of independence practices Each year, a summary report in relation to the independence declarations that all principals and staff need to make is provided to the Ethics Partner.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

The firm has well-established systems and procedures in place to help safeguard the objectivity of staff and avoid conflicts of interest, whilst complying with ethical and other applicable standards.

Partners and staff are required to declare financial interests held by themselves, members of their immediate or close family or in their capacity as trustee in any client or affiliate.

Similarly, policies are in place providing guidance on business relationships and the purchasing of goods and services in the normal course of business. The annual declarations completed by staff, partners and consultants are monitored for any change in business relationships.

Compliance with the firm's audit rotation policy is monitored and is applied to all audit partners and senior members of staff involved in an audit.

There are clear guidelines for dealing with gifts, hospitality and sponsorship so that any self-interest threat is avoided and objectivity is not impaired. The firm has a clear and extensive gifts and hospitality policy in place to determine whether or not a gift or hospitality should be accepted and it is kept refreshed.

RISK MANAGEMENT

All staff and partners are expected to embody the values of the firm with regards to risk and follow correct procedures. The promotion of risk mitigation is a key theme at audit workshops and RI meetings.

RISK MANAGEMENT PROCEDURES

Across the firm, the management has primary responsibility for dealing with strategic and operational risk management including internal controls. The firm has also established an internal Risk Advisory Group which is led by the head of operations and comprises members from its Compliance, Legal and QA teams. Their work is to look at risk matters and internal controls within the firm and advise and support management to improve risk management strategy, operations and internal controls.

The firm requires the completion of the Client and Engagement Acceptance Programme (CEAP) for all new clients and additional and continuing engagements in relation to existing clients. The programme is designed to assist in identifying and managing risk, including the risk of breaching ethical standards, and incorporates an automated upward review and authorisation process. It forms an important element of the firm's procedures to enable the firm to obtain reasonable assurance that it, and its personnel, comply with those standards before undertaking or retaining an engagement. Compliance and QAD undertake frequent checks to ensure procedures are being followed appropriately. System is continually enhanced and extensive intranet guidance and training is provided to users.

A wide Risk Register has been compiled and is used by QAD in the performance of an internal audit function. The compilation of the Risk Register and the review of effectiveness of controls have made use of the FRC Guidance on Risk Management and Internal Control.

CLIENT FEEDBACK

It is vital that audits are robust and independent but they also need to deliver a useful product to business managers and audit committees. We regularly carry out face to face interviews with our clients. These are conducted by personnel who have not been involved with any aspect of the service.

Each client interview is reviewed by the management and any issues on audit quality or service are addressed with the RI and the team. When particular themes emerge these are discussed and addressed the Management.

Key themes

 Thorough upfront audit planning	 Efficient and smooth fieldwork	 Excellent sector knowledge
 Understanding of the business	 Professional staff	 Technically competent and up to date with regulatory changes
 Right level of challenge	 Delivery of robust, thorough and reliable audits	 Sensible, relevant questions
 Attendance at Trustee and/or audit committee meetings	 Maintaining independence through rotation and not getting too 'cosy'

Areas for improvement

 In some instances, the audit findings report could be shorter and more insightful	 The end of the audit before sign-off can be rushed although deadlines were met	 Some clients felt there could be more communication from the on-site team
 Occasionally better briefing of new team members to avoid unnecessary questions	 More transparency on fees, especially on changes to scope
