

The power of attorney form will not be available, as the Extraordinary General Assembly will be held remotely through modern technology means. Shareholders will be able to participate in the Extraordinary General Assembly and vote electronically via the Tadawulaty platform. Registration and voting through the Tadawulaty service are available free of charge to all shareholders.