Articles to be added	Proposed text
Adding a provision related to participation and ownership in companies	The company may solely establish companies (inside or outside the Kingdom), and it may own shares and stakes in other existing or newly established companies, unless prohibited by law, or it may participate with others in the incorporation of joint stock companies or limited liability companies, or subscribe in limited liability companies, or participate in investment portfolios, subject to fulfilling the requirements of the regulations and instructions issued in this regard. The company may also dispose of such shares or stakes, provided that this does not include brokerage in their trading.
Adding a provision related to the issuance of shares	Company shares shall be nominal, and may not be issued at less than their nominal value. They may be issued at a higher value than this amount if approved by the Extraordinary General Assembly. In this case, the difference in value shall be recorded in a separate item within shareholders' equity and may not be distributed as cash dividends to shareholders. It may be used to increase the capital through issuing bonus shares, or used to write off losses after exhausting any reserves previously formed from profits.
Adding a provision related to employee stock allocation	If the purpose of the company's purchase of its shares is to allocate them to its employees under an employee share program, then, in addition to the controls governing the company's purchase of its shares, the following must be observed: 1- The approval of the Extraordinary General Assembly for the employee share program, and it may delegate the Board of Directors to determine the terms of this program, including the allocation price for each share offered to employees if it is for consideration. 2- Non-participation of non-executive members of the Board of Directors in the employee share program. 3- Executive members of the Board of Directors shall not participate in voting on Board resolutions related to the employee share program.

Adding a provision related to conflicts of interest, competition, and asset exploitation

A- A member of the company's Board of Directors shall not have any direct or indirect interest in the business and contracts carried out for the account of the company, except with authorization from the General Assembly of shareholders or whomever it delegates, provided that such delegation is in accordance with the controls and conditions stipulated in the Companies Law and its Executive Regulations, or those set by the competent authorities in this regard.

The Board member must disclose the business and contracts referred to in this paragraph immediately upon becoming aware of any interest therein, in accordance with the procedures set out in Article Seventy-One (71) of the Companies Law.

The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to the following:

- Business and contracts concluded through public competition.
- Business and contracts aimed at meeting personal needs, provided they are conducted under the same terms and conditions applied by the company to the general public and fall within the company's usual activities.
- Any other business or contracts specified by the regulations, provided they do not conflict with the company's interests.

The company shall have the right, in the event of a breach of this paragraph by a Board member, to file a claim before the competent judicial authority to annul the contract and to oblige the member to pay any profit or benefit obtained therefrom.

B- A member of the company's Board of Directors shall not participate in any activity that competes with the company, nor compete with the company in any of its lines of business, except with authorization from the General Assembly of shareholders or whomever it delegates, provided that such authorization is in accordance with the controls and conditions stipulated in the Companies Law and its Executive Regulations or those set by the competent authorities in this regard.

The company shall have the right, in the event of a breach of this paragraph by a Board member, to claim appropriate compensation before the competent judicial authority.

	C- A member of the Board of Directors shall not exploit the company's assets, its information, or the investment opportunities presented to them in their capacity as a Board member, or presented to the company, for their direct or indirect personal benefit, if such investment opportunity falls within the company's usual activities, or if the company seeks or is expected to benefit from such opportunity. D- A Board member shall not participate in voting on any resolution issued in this regard at meetings of the Board of Directors or the General Assembly.
Adding a provision related to the mechanism for proxying members	1. A member may act as proxy for another member in accordance with the following controls: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A. The delegation must be evidenced in writing and directed to ensure the confidentiality of the Board. It must specify the name of the Board, identify the delegating member, and state the date and time of the relevant meeting (or, where applicable, details of the relevant written directors' resolution).</li> <li>B. The proxy shall have the same rights as the appointing member in relation to the relevant Board meeting or written directors' resolution.</li> <li>C. The proxy shall be responsible for their own acts and omissions.</li> <li>D. The proxy shall be subject to the same restrictions applicable to the member who appointed them.</li> <li>E. The proxy shall not be deemed an agent of the member who appointed them.</li> <li>F. The proxy may be counted for quorum purposes (but only where the appointing member does not participate).</li> <li>G. The proxy may sign or otherwise confirm consent to a written resolution (but only where the appointing member has not signed or otherwise indicated their approval in circumstances where they are entitled to do so).</li> </ul> 2. A Board member's delegation shall automatically terminate in any of the following cases (whichever occurs first): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A. If the delegating Board member provides written notice to the company cancelling the appointment of the proxy.</li> <li>B. Upon conclusion of the relevant Board meeting.</li> </ul>
