5.3.2 The Board Members' Remuneration and Compensations

Based on SAMA's instructions circular 381000063670, the remuneration of the members of the Board of Directors of BSF has been fixed at a maximum of SR 500,000 per person per annum including any other remuneration paid to the director for his participation in any Board Committee and any other type of compensations including a maximum of SR 5,000 for attending each meeting of the Board either personally or through conference call, which is subject to proper disclosure and provided that the total remuneration so paid shall not exceed 5% of the net profit. However the Board may determine special remuneration for the chairman in addition to the remuneration provided to board members.

Moreover, the Chairman and Board members shall be reimbursed for the actual expenses they incur, including travel and accommodation expenses to attend the meetings of the Board and its Committees.

NRC should take into account the following while assessing the remunerations:

- a) Remunerations shall be fair, appropriate, and commensurate with the Board member's activities and responsibilities, as well as with the objectives set by the Board, which are to be achieved during the financial year;
- b) Remunerations shall be based on the NRC's recommendations;
