Chapter Two

Share Capital and Shares

Article 07 Share Capital and Shares

The share capital of the Company is five billion two hundred thirty-two million five hundred ninety-nine thousand ninety (SAR 5,232,599,090) Saudi Riyals divided into five hundred twenty-three million two hundred fifty-nine thousand, nine hundred and nine (523,259,909) shares of equal nominal value of ten (10) Saudi Riyals per share, which consist of ordinary cash shares with a value of three billion one hundred thirty-nine million five hundred fifty-nine thousand four hundred fifty (3,139,559,450) Saudi Riyals and in-kind shares with a value of two billion ninety-three million thirty-nine thousand six hundred forty (2,093,039,640) Saudi Riyals.

Article 08 Subscription

The shareholders have subscribed to all the issued share capital of the company amounting to five hundred and twenty-three million two hundred and fifty-nine thousand nine hundred and nine (523,259,909) shares and have paid the full value thereof.

Article 09 Preferred Shares; Redeemable Shares; Company's Purchasing and Conversion of Shares

The Company may, subject to the conditions of the relevant authority, issue preferred shares or redeemable shares, purchase preferred shares, or convert such from a class or type into another. The preferred shares shall not give their holders the right to vote in general assemblies except where permitted by the laws and regulations issued by the competent authority.

Article 10 Debt Instruments and Sukuk

The Company may, pursuant to the laws in force and rules set out by the competent authority, issue debt instruments or negotiable sukuk by a resolution of Board of Directors, whether they were issued at the same time, in a series of issuances, or in one or more programs designated for issuing debt or sukuk. The Board of Directors shall have the right to specify times, amounts and conditions that it deems appropriate. The Company may, pursuant to the laws in force and rules set out by the competent authority, also issue debt instruments or sukuk convertible into shares by a resolution of the Extraordinary General Assembly to determine the maximum number of shares that may be issued in exchange for those debt instruments or sukuk, whether those debt instruments or sukuk convertible into shares are issued at the same time, through a series of issues or through one or more programs to issue debt instruments or sukuk. The Board may, without the need for a new approval from the Extraordinary General Assembly, issue new shares in exchange for those debt instruments or sukuk that their holders request for their conversion, immediately after the end of the conversion request period specified for the holders of those debt instruments or sukuk. The Board shall take the statutory measures regarding the capital increase.

Article 11 Non-Payment of Shares

A shareholder shall pay the value of the shares at the times set therefor. If a shareholder fails to make such payments at the due dates, the Board of Directors may, after notifying the shareholder by any means approved by the competent authority, sell such shares in a public auction or in the stock exchange, as appropriate. The other shareholder shall have priority in purchasing the shares of the defaulting shareholder in accordance with the laws and rules set by the competent authority.

The Company shall recover the amounts it is owed from the sale proceeds and refund the balance to the shareholder. If the sale proceeds are insufficient to cover what is due to the Company, then the Company may recover the entire amount due from the shareholder's assets.

The enforcement of the rights related to the shares whose value is overdue shall be suspended upon the elapse of the date set for such payment until they are sold, or the dues are paid in accordance with the provision of Paragraph (1) of this Article. These rights include the right to receive a share in the profits declared for distribution and the right to attend assemblies and vote on their resolutions. However, the defaulting shareholder may, until the day specified for the sale of shares, pay its due value in addition to the expenses incurred by the Company in this regard, and in this case the shareholder shall have the right to request obtaining the profits declared for distribution.

The Company shall cancel the share certificate for the shares sold pursuant to this Article, give the purchaser a new share certificate bearing the same serial number and make an annotation to this effect in the shareholders register together with adding the information of the new holder.

Article 12 Issuance of Shares

The shares shall be nominal. Shares may not be issued at less than their nominal value, but they may be issued more than this value. In this case, the difference in value shall be prescribed in a separate provision within shareholders' rights. The share is undividable towards company. If a share is jointly owned by several persons, they must elect one of them to exercise the rights attached to such share on their behalf, but they shall be jointly liable for the obligations arising from the ownership of such share.

Article 13 Shareholders Register and Transfer of Shares

The Company's shares shall be transferred in accordance with the Capital Market Law and its Implementing Regulations.

Article 14 Company's Purchase, Sale and Pledge of its Shares

1. The Company may purchase, sell and pledge its ordinary or preferred shares in accordance with the regulations and procedures of the competent authority. The shares purchased by the Company do not have voting rights in the Shareholders' Assemblies.
2. The Company may purchase its shares as an allocation to the Company's employees within the employee shares program in accordance with the controls and procedures of the competent authority.
3. The Company may sell treasury shares in one or several stages in accordance with the controls and procedures of the competent authority.
4. The Company may pledge its shares as security for a debt in accordance with the regulations and procedures of the competent authority.

Article 15 Increase of Capital

1. The issued share capital may be increased within the limits of the authorized share capital, pursuant to a resolution by the Board of Directors of the Company, provided that the issued share capital has been paid in full.
2. The Extraordinary General Assembly may adopt a resolution to increase the Company's issued or authorized share capital, provided that the issued share capital must have been paid in full unless the unpaid portion relates to convertible debt instruments or sukuk and the period set for converting them into shares has not expired.
3. The Extraordinary General Assembly may, in all cases, allocate the shares issued upon the capital increase, or part thereof, to employees of the company and its subsidiaries or some of them, or any of that. Shareholders may not exercise pre-emption right when the company issues the shares allocated to employees.
4. A shareholder holding a share at the time of the Extraordinary General Assembly issuing a resolution approving the issued capital increase or at the time of the Board of Directors issuing its approval to the increase of the issued capital within the limits of the authorized capital shall have pre-emptive rights to subscribe for the new shares issued against cash contributions. Such priority, if any, shall be notified to such shareholder through means approved by the competent authority as well as being notified of the resolution of capital increase and subscription conditions, manner, duration, date of commencement and expiry.
5. The Extraordinary General Assembly may suspend the pre-emption right of the shareholders to subscribe to the capital increase in exchange for cash shares, or to give priority to non-shareholders in the cases it deems appropriate for the interest of the company.
6. A shareholder may sell or assign its pre-emption right in accordance with the laws and rules set by the competent authority.
7. Subject to the provisions of sub-article (5) above, new Shares shall be distributed to pre-emptive rights holders who have demanded subscription in proportion to the total pre-emptive rights resulting from the capital increase provided that the number of Shares allotted to them shall not exceed the number of new Shares they have applied for. The remaining new Shares shall be allotted to the original Shareholders who have asked for more than their proportionate share, in proportion to the pre-emptive rights they hold out of pre-emptive rights resulting from the capital increase provided that the number of Shares allotted to them shall not exceed the number of new Shares they have applied for. The rest of the Shares shall be offered to third parties unless otherwise provided for by the Extraordinary General Assembly or Capital Market Law

Article 16 Decrease of Capital

The Extraordinary General Assembly may, after obtaining the approval of the competent authorities, reduce its capital if it proves to be in excess of the Company's needs or if the Company incurred losses. The Company may reduce its capital below the limit specified in Article 59 of the Companies Law only if it incurs losses. Such resolution shall be issued only after reading a statement prepared by the Board of Directors in respect of the reasons calling for such reduction, the obligations to be fulfilled by the Company and the effect of the reduction on the fulfilment of such obligations. A report of the auditor of the Company shall be attached to such statement. The resolution shall identify the method of reduction. If the reduction of the capital is due to its being in excess of the Company's needs, then the Company's creditors must be invited to express their objection, if any, before forty-five (45) days from the date of the Extraordinary General Assembly meeting to resolve to decrease the capital. Such invitation shall be accompanied by a statement on the capital amount before and after the reduction, date of the meeting and date of entry into force of the reduction. Should any creditor object and present to the Company evidentiary documents of such debt within the time limit set above, then the Company shall pay such debt, if already due, or present to that creditor an adequate guarantee of payment if the debt is due on a later date.

Chapter Three Board of Directors

Article 17 Management of the Company

The Company shall be managed by a Board of Directors comprised of nine (9) members of natural persons elected by the Ordinary General Assembly for a term not exceeding four Georgian years, and the board members may be re-elected and nominated for a further terms in accordance with the laws and rules set out by the competent authority.

A meeting of the Ordinary General Assembly shall be valid only if attended by shareholders representing at least a quarter of the Company's shares that have voting rights. If such quorum cannot be attained at the first meeting, One of the following alternatives apply:

1. a second meeting shall be held within one hour following the time set for the preceding meeting provided that the notice shall expressly allow holding such meeting.
2. a second meeting shall be held within 30 days following the time set for the preceding meeting. Such notice shall be made in the manner prescribed in Article 30 hereof.

The second meeting shall be deemed valid irrespective of the number of shares that have voting rights represented therein.

Article 32 Quorum of Extraordinary General Assembly

A meeting of the Extraordinary General Assembly shall be valid only if attended by shareholders representing at least 50% of the Company's shares with voting rights. If such quorum cannot be attained at the first meeting, One of the following alternatives apply:

1. a second meeting shall be held within one hour following the time set for the preceding meeting provided that the notice shall expressly allow holding such meeting.
2. a second meeting shall be convened in the same manner provided for in Article 32 of the Bylaws.

The second meeting shall be valid only if attended by a number of shareholders representing at least 25% of the Company's shares with voting rights.

If such quorum cannot be attained at the second meeting, a third meeting shall be convened in the manner prescribed in Article 32 hereof. The third meeting shall be deemed valid irrespective of the number of shares with voting rights represented therein, after obtaining the relevant authority's approval.

Article 33 Voting Rights

1. Each shareholder shall have one vote for each share he/it owns at any General Assembly meeting. Cumulative voting must be used in electing the Board of Directors, so that the right to vote per share may not be used more than once.
2. Members of the Board of Directors may not participate in voting on the decisions of the Assembly related to their discharge from responsibility for the management of the Company.
3. No member of the Board of Directors may participate in voting on resolutions related to business and contracts in which they have direct or indirect interest or which involve conflict of interest.

Article 34 General Assembly Resolutions

Resolutions of the Ordinary General Assembly shall be adopted with the consent of the majority of voting rights represented in the meeting. Resolutions of the Extraordinary General Assembly shall be adopted by a vote of two-thirds of the voting rights represented at the meeting. However, if the resolution to be adopted is related to increasing or reducing the capital, extending the Company's duration, dissolving the Company prior to the expiry of its term specified in the Articles, merging the Company with another company or dividing the company into two companies or more, then such resolution shall be valid only if adopted by a vote of three-quarters (75%) of the voting rights represented at the meeting.

Article 35 Deliberations in General Assembly Meetings

Every shareholder shall have the right to discuss the matters listed in the agenda of an Ordinary General Assembly, and to address questions to the Directors and the Auditor in respect thereof .

The Directors or the Auditor shall answer Shareholders' questions to such an extent that would not jeopardize the Company's interests. If a Shareholder feels that the answer to his question is unsatisfactory, he may appeal to the General Assembly whose decision shall be final in this respect.

Article 36 Proceedings of the General Assembly

The General Assembly shall be presided over by the Chairman or, in his absence, the Vice Chairman, or whoever the Board of Directors authorizes in the absence of the Chairman and Vice Chairman.

The Committee's chairman shall appoint a secretary and a collector of votes. Minutes shall be kept for every General Assembly, showing the names of Shareholders present or represented, the number of Shares held by each of them, whether personally or by proxy, the number of votes allotted thereto, the resolutions adopted, the number of consenting and dissenting votes, and a comprehensive summary of the debate conducted at the meeting. Following every meeting, the minutes shall be recorded in an organized manner in a special book, which shall be signed by the Chairman, the Secretary, and the vote counter, if any, or otherwise in accordance with procedures followed by the competent authority.

Chapter Five

Auditor

Article 37 Appointment of Auditor

The Company shall have one or more Auditors to be selected from among the auditors certified as licensed to practice accounting in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. The Auditor shall be appointed by the Ordinary General Assembly, and shall determine its compensation, term and scope of work.. The Ordinary General Assembly may further reappoint the same Auditor, provided that the total term of his appointment shall not exceed seven consecutive or non- consecutive years. The Auditor who has exhausted this period may not be reappointed before the lapse of three financial years from the end of the last financial year in which he worked as an auditor for the Company. The General Assembly may at any time remove the Auditors, without prejudice to their right to compensation if the removal is made at an improper time or without acceptable justification. The auditor may resign by a written notification submitted to the Company, and his mandate shall end from the date of such date submission or at a later date specified in the notification, without prejudice to the Company's right to compensation, if necessary. The resigned auditor shall provide the company and the Competent Authority – upon submitting the notification –to include justifications for his resignation, and the Board of Directors must call the General Assembly to convene to consider the reasons for resignation, appoint another auditor and determine its remuneration, term and scope of work.

Article 38 Auditor Powers

The Auditor shall have access at all times to the Company's documents, accounting records and supporting documents. The Auditor may also request information and clarification as it deems necessary. It may further check and confirm the Company's assets, liabilities and any other tasks that fall within the scope of its work.

The Board of Directors shall enable the Auditor to undertake its duties. The Auditor shall record any difficulties it may face in such regard in its report to the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors does not facilitate the Auditor's work, the Auditor shall request the Board of Directors to convene the General Assembly to look into such matter. The Auditor may send such invitation if the Board of Directors does not send it within thirty (30) days from the date of the Auditor's request.

Chapter Six

Company's Accounts and Distribution of Profits

Article 39 Fiscal Year

The Company's fiscal year shall commence on first day of January and expire on the 31st of December of each Georgian year.

Article 40 Financial Documents

1. The Board of Directors shall prepare the Company's financial statements at the end of each fiscal year together with a report of its activities and financial position for the preceding financial year. This report shall include the proposed method for distributing profits. The Board of Directors shall place such documents at the disposition of the Auditor at least 45 (forty-five) days prior to the date set for convening the General Assembly .
2. The Chairman, Company CEO, and Chief Financial Officer shall sign the documents referred to in Paragraph (1) of this Article. A copy thereof shall be placed in the Company's head office to be available for Shareholders.

3. The Chairman shall provide Shareholders with Company financial statements, the Board of Directors' report and the Auditor's report unless these reports are published in means approved by the competent authority in at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the date set for convening the General Assembly.

Article 41 Distribution of Profits

The Company's annual net profits shall be allocated as follows:

1. The Ordinary General Assembly may, in determining the dividend per share out of the net profits, resolve to form a reserve in an amount that achieves the Company's best interest or guarantees the constant distribution of profits to shareholders. The Ordinary General Assembly may also deduct an amount from the net profits to establish or support social institutions for the Company's employees or help such institutions.
2. The General Assembly shall set out the percentage of net profits that must be distributed to shareholders after setting aside reserves, if any.
3. The Company may distribute interim dividends to its shareholders on a semi-annual or quarterly basis after fulfilling the statutory requirements and instructions in this regard.

Article 42 Entitlement to Dividends

Shareholders shall be entitled to their share of profits pursuant to the General Assembly resolution adopted in this regard. Such resolution shall specify the entitlement date and distribution date. Shareholders registered in the shareholders register shall be entitled to their shares of profit by the end of the day of their entitlement.

Chapter Seven

Disputes

Article 43 Claim of the Company and Shareholder

1. The company may file a liability claim against the Board Members for violating the provisions of the Companies Law or the Bylaws, and committing wrongful acts or negligence in the performance of their duties that result in damages to the Company. The General Assembly shall decide to file this claim and appoint a representative of the Company in the claim. If the Company is in the process of liquidation, the liquidator shall file the claim. In the event that any of the liquidation procedures are initiated against the Company in accordance with the Bankruptcy Law, this lawsuit shall be filed by its legal representative.
2. One or more shareholder who represent five per cent (5%) of the Company's share capital may file a liability claim for the Company in the event that the Company does not file such claim, taking into account that the main objective of the filing is to achieve the interests of the Company, that the claim is based on a sound basis, the plaintiff is in good faith, and the plaintiff is a shareholder in the Company at the time of filing the claim. To file the claim referred to in this Paragraph, the Company's Board of Directors, as applicable, shall be informed of the intention to file the claim at least fourteen (14) days before the date of the filing.
3. a Shareholder may file a liability claim against the members of the Board of Directors if they have committed a fault which has caused some particular damage to such Shareholder.

Chapter Eight

Dissolution and Winding-up of the Company

Article 44 Dissolution of the Company

Upon the expiry of the Company, it shall enter into liquidation period during which it shall maintain its legal personality to the extent necessary for liquidation. Optional liquidation may only be adopted by resolution of the Extraordinary General Assembly. The liquidation resolution shall appoint a liquidator and determine its powers, fees, restrictions of power and the period of liquidation, provided that optional liquidation period shall not exceed three years and cannot be extended without a judicial order. The powers of the Board of Directors shall cease upon the Company's approval of its liquidation, provided, however, that the Board of Directors shall remain responsible for the management of the Company and is deemed vis-à-vis third parties as liquidator until the liquidators are appointed. The General Assembly shall remain existent during the liquidation period and shall exercise its powers to the extent it does not conflict with the powers of the liquidator.

Chapter Nine
Concluding Provisions

Article 45

The Company shall be subject to all laws in force in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. Any provision that contravenes the Companies law in these Bylaws is null and the Companies Law shall apply in such respect. All matters not governed by these Bylaws shall be governed by the Companies Law and its Implementing Regulations.

Article 46

The Articles shall be placed and published in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Law and its Implementing Regulations.
